

The Justice and Peace Advocacy Committee of the Cluster Parishes of All Saints, Lansing; Holy Cross, Freeville/Dryden; St. Anthony, Groton and the Peace and Justice Committee of St. Catherine of Siena, Ithaca present a forum on

IMMIGRATION REFORM

Featuring

Sr. Janet Korn RSM

Diocesan Office of Parish Support Ministries and Mission Education

"For I was a stranger and you welcomed Me"

Matthew 25:35

Sister Korn served in Chile from 1965-1981 as director of pastoral ministry and has spent her life working on behalf of the poor. She has worked with the migrant community in Wayne County.

Sister Korn will speak on the complexities of immigration, Catholic Social Teaching and the U.S. Catholic Church's support for comprehensive immigration reform.

Also featuring discussion by

Debbie Patrick

Southern Cayuga County Migrant Ministry

Sunday, January 31

3:00-4:30 pm

St. Anthony Parish

312 Locke Road
Groton, NY

Don't miss this important and interesting discussion!